

The Fort Mercer Flag

Color Fort Mercer's flag! The colors of this flag are inverted. This means the red of the American flag is where the blue should be, and the blue is where the red should be! Communication during the Revolutionary War was not great, and there was a miss communication about the colors for the flag. This is why Fort Mercer's flag looked so much different than the American Flag we know today.