MEMORIAL DAY SERVICE TO BE HELD MAY 26

Each year, families and veterans gather to honor the men and women who have fought for our country. Commissioner Denice DiCarlo, who serves as liaison to the Office of Veterans Affairs, has announced that this year's Gloucester County Memorial Day Service will take place on Sunday, May 26 at 1:00pm at the Gloucester County Veterans Memorial Cemetery, located at 240 South Tuckahoe Road in Monroe Township.

"Our veterans and their families have made tremendous sacrifices for our nation and for our community," noted Commissioner DiCarlo. "It is only right that we recognize them during our annual ceremony as well as provide resources and support throughout the year through the Office of Veterans Affairs."

There will be limited seating under the Committal Shelter, so it is suggested that attendees arrive early and bring a lawn chair. The ceremony is open to everyone and onsite parking is available.

To learn more about all of the services and resources available from the Office of Veterans Affairs, please visit <https://www.glocestercountynj.gov/267/Veterans-Affairs> or scan the QR code.

EXPLORE ALL GLOUCESTER COUNTY HAS TO OFFER

Gloucester County is rich in historical sites and is home to some of the most beautiful parks, an excellent selection of local restaurants, acclaimed wineries, breweries, and agritourism experiences. Whether you are a local resident or just visiting for a long weekend, there is so much to explore and fun to be had in Gloucester County.

Commissioner Joann Gattinelli, liaison to the Department of Economic Development, invites residents to visit our interactive tourism guide to find places to visit throughout Gloucester County. "Our county has so much to offer residents and visitors and this is an excellent tool to explore it all," noted Commissioner Gattinelli. To get started, find a tab that interests you and begin visiting some of what our county has to offer. "Between visiting the Dream Park to see an equestrian event, seeing a play at one of our performing arts theaters, visiting the Whitall House to see how people lived during the Revolutionary War, booking a tee time at one of our golf courses, skydiving, axe throwing, disc golf, or pickleball at Atkinson Park, the offerings are endless and the experiences are unforgettable," concluded Gattinelli.

SENIORS SPRING FLING RETURNS

Commissioner Deputy Director Jim Jefferson, liaison to the Division of Senior Services, has announced that the Gloucester County Board of Commissioners is once hosting Spring Fling events for senior residents. This year's events will take place on Wednesday, June 12, Tuesday June 18, and Wednesday, June 19 from 10:00am to 2:00pm at Auletto Caterers, located at 1849 Cooper Street in Woodbury.

Attendees will be provided with lunch, entertainment, and dancing along to a live band and DJ. There will also be a dance contest, door prizes, and more.

The event is open to residents of Gloucester County aged 60 or above. Tickets for the event are available for purchase beginning on May 8 for $2.00 each from the Division of Senior Services office or any of the six Senior Nutrition Sites throughout the County during hours of operation. Please note that a limited number of tickets are available for each event.

For further information, please call the Gloucester County Division of Senior Services at (856) 384-6900, email seniors@co.goucester.nj.us, or visit <https://gloucestercountynj.gov/303/seniors>, or scan the QR code.

MEDICAL REUSE EQUIPMENT PROGRAM

The Gloucester County Division of Senior Services and Deputy Director/liaison Jim Jefferson are thrilled to announce that the Senior Services Medical Equipment Reuse Program is actively seeking new and gently used medical equipment to support our cherished seniors.

The program accepts a variety of items such as canes, quad canes, shower and bath chairs, wheelchairs, scooters, blood pressure monitors, and more. Unopened/unexpired nutritional supplements and adult briefs/pads/diapers are also welcomed.

If you're 60 years or older (or a caregiver), you're eligible to pick up these essential items free of charge. Simply provide identification with proof of age and address. Our dedicated staff will then check the inventory and provide the requested items if available.

For equipment donations or any program-related questions, please call (856) 384-6900 or email seniors@co.goucester.nj.us.

SUMMER YOUTH PROGRAM REGISTRATION BEGINS JUNE 3

Mark your calendars! On Monday, June 3, at 9:00am, online program registration opens for Gloucester County Department of Parks and Recreation's popular summer youth programs, including Nature Detectives Camp and History Camp.

Nature Detectives campers are immersed in a fun and active nature camp experience, with both structured activities and time for unstructured, self-led downtime and exploration. The theme of each week is explored through various art, activities, games, experiments, and observation each day, with opportunities to further delve into subjects and activities that campers are drawn to. Each week includes a tour of our Nature Center, featuring live animals.

History Camp offers a one-of-a-kind experience for youngsters entering 2nd through 6th grades. Watch history come alive! Come join us for a week of hands-on Colonial history. See what it was like to be a child during the 1700's. Enjoy days full of games and activities.

For more program and registration information, please visit <https://www.glocestercountynj.gov/1225/Summer-Programs> or scan the QR code.

MAY 24 IS DON'T FRY DAY

To help reduce rising rates of skin cancer from overexposure to the ultraviolet (UV) rays of the sun, the National Council on Skin Cancer Prevention has designated the Friday before Memorial Day as "Don't Fry Day" to encourage sun safety awareness and to remind everyone to protect their skin while enjoying the outdoors.

Sun Safety Tips:

- Slip on a long-sleeved shirt or other clothing to protect your skin from the sun.
- Apply sunscreen with an SPF of 15 or higher. Reapply at least every two hours.
- Wear a broad brimmed hat to protect the back of your neck and ears .
- Don't forget your sunglasses, preferably the ones that wrap around the sides of your face are best.

COMMISSIONERS ASSIST WITH GCIA/GCEMS DEMOLITION PROJECT

During the weekend of March 2-3, Commissioner Denice DiCarlo, who serves as liaison to the Gloucester County Emergency Medical Services (GCEMS), along with Commissioner Director Frank J. DiMarco and Commissioner Joann Gattinelli, lent their assistance to a Gloucester County Improvement Authority (GCIA) crew that demolished a long-standing eyesore on Bridgeton Pike in Harrison Township. The site is the future location of GCEMS station 83-3. Commissioner Director DiMarco remarked,

“While significant work remains to be accomplished, as a bid will need to be solicited and ultimately awarded for the construction of the station, this represents a huge step forward in the project.”

This project demonstrates the Board of Commissioners’ ongoing commitment to GCEMS and the outstanding service it provides daily to the residents of Gloucester County.

FOOD TRUCK INSPECTIONS

As the weather warms, many towns are hosting outdoor events, and of course everyone loves the food truck festivals!

Did you know that the mobile unit food truck operators, as well as table top food vendors, must be inspected annually by their local health department? We want to make certain the public can attend the food filled fun events knowing the vendors have met the New Jersey Department of Health Requirements!

If you are a vendor, please take a moment to visit the Gloucester County Health Department Food Vendors/ Special Event website for application and information. Please visit <https://gloucestercountynj.gov/691/Food-Vendors-Special-Events>, scan the QR code, or call (856) 218-4170.

SOCIAL EATING PROGRAM INTRODUCED

In a world where social media, societal norms, and fitness trends often intertwine, it's crucial to address the potential impact on our relationship with food. The new “Social Eating” program recently introduced by the Gloucester County Department of Health helps shed light on the connections between social media, societal expectations, and fitness strategies that can contribute to eating disorders.

This program, which aims to foster awareness and empower communities, is available to agencies and groups throughout Gloucester County. To schedule a presentation, please contact Carla Kephart at (856) 218-4106 or via email at ckephart@co.gloucester.nj.us.
