HONORING A WAR OF 1812 HERO IN DEPTFORD

On Saturday, June 28, a ceremony was held at the Green Cemetery to honor Private Robert M. Clare, a War of 1812 veteran. Clare's newly marked grave was unveiled during a dedication ceremony recognizing his service at the Battle of Lyon's Creek and his lasting legacy. Thanks to the efforts of the Trustees and the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, his final resting place and that of several descendants will now be properly honored for generations to come.
