Employees shall be entitled to one (1) day leave per incident with pay, for the death of any other relative not referenced in this paragraph. Such bereavement time will not be deducted from annual sick leave.

ARTICLE XVII
MISCELLANEOUS PAID LEAVE

- 17.1 Administrative Leave. Employees shall be allowed three days off with pay annually for personal business, except that Employees hired on or after July 1 shall be entitled to one administrative leave day in the first calendar year of service. Except in cases of emergency, requests for administrative leave shall be submitted to the appropriate department head at least two working days in advance of the requested leave date. It is understood that in order to maintain sufficient service levels, the Employer reserves the right to deny a request for administrative leave if services would be interrupted, hindered, or obstructed.
- 17.1.1 Rollover. Employees shall be allowed to carry over the preceding year's earned Administrative Leave. Where, in any calendar year, any Administrative Leave time is not used by an Employee, such Administrative Leave time shall accumulate and shall be granted during the next succeeding calendar year only. - 17.1.2 Sellback. Employees shall be permitted to sell back up to six (6) accrued Administrative Leave days a year at the end of the calendar year at the employee's option. - 17.1.3 Payout. Accrued, unused Administrative Leave time shall be paid to the estate of a deceased Employee. Any Employee retiring or otherwise separating shall be entitled to a pro rata allowance for the current year in which the separation or retirement becomes effective. Any Administrative Leave time carried over from the previous year will be included.
- 17.2 Emergency Excusals. In case of adverse weather or other emergency, the Employer may, at its discretion, excuse the Employees from work without loss of pay. Employees who are required to work on such days while the rest of the work force is excused shall receive compensatory time equal to the time worked on such days or cash at the option of the Employer.
- 17.3 Jury Duty. Employees called for jury duty shall not suffer loss of pay for such service. An Employee shall be required to turn over to the Employer any per diem fee received for jury duty in such cases.
- 17.4 Military Leave. Employees in the military service, including New Jersey National guard or United States Armed Forces Reserves, shall be entitled to such leave provisions as may be required by law or County ordinance or resolution. Employees with weekend military obligations whose normal work schedule requires them to work on some or all weekends may have their weekend work schedule amended by the Employer during such week so that there will be no conflict and the County and military obligations may both be met without additional cost to the Employer.

ARTICLE XVIII
UNPAID LEAVES OF ABSENCE

18.1 Upon request, an Employee may be granted a leave of absence without pay for up to six months where necessary for medical, maternity or paternity, or for other reasons satisfactory to the Employer. Such leave may be extended for an additional six months where circumstances warrant. Requests for leave shall not be unreasonably denied. Upon returning from an approved leave, an employee shall be restored to his or her previous position or to an equivalent position.

(a) An employee requesting medical leave will be required to provide a medical certification explaining why leave is needed.

(b) Requests for leave shall be made at least two weeks in advance whenever possible. If two weeks' notice is not possible, the employee shall give notice as soon as practicable. Except in cases of emergency, requests shall be in writing. The Employer shall respond promptly in writing as well.

(c) When requesting leave, an employee shall specify the starting date and the anticipated date of return in so far as possible. If there is to be a change in the return date, the employee will be responsible for notifying the Employer with reasonable promptness, but in no event less than two working days prior to the new return date, unless notice is waived by the Employer.

(d) Before returning to work, employees who are on leave because of their own illness or injury may be required to submit a certification from their health care provider verifying that they are able to resume working. Notice of this requirement will be given to each affected employee sufficiently in advance of the anticipated return date.

18.2 Disability due to pregnancy shall be considered as any other disability in accordance with Federal law.

18.3 All applicable requirements of the State Family Leave Act and the Federal Family and Medical Leave Act shall be followed with respect to employees who request leave for hours under the FLA) are entitled to twelve weeks of qualifying leave during a twelve-month period (24-month period under the FLA). An employee's twelve-week leave period shall be measured beginning with his/her first day of FMLA leave. Paid leave time will count as time worked for purposes of meeting the hours-of-work threshold. However, paid vacation, administrative or compensatory time off shall not be counted against an Employee's twelve-week FMLA or FLA entitlement, regardless of whether such leave is used for an otherwise qualifying reason.

- (a) childbirth

- 18.4 Any Employee taking an unpaid leave of absence shall be permitted to continue his/her health benefit coverage after employer-paid coverage ends by paying the monthly premiums prior to the coverage month. In addition, an eligible employee who takes leave qualifying under the FLA or the FMLA shall have coverage continued by the Employer during such leave.

In January of each year, the Association shall notify the Employer of the names of the three officers who are eligible to use such Association leave days, and shall also notify the Employer of any changes in the designated officers during the course of the calendar year.
- 19.2 In addition to the Association leave set forth in 19.1, no Association representative shall suffer a loss in pay while attending any jointly agreed Union-Employer meeting, or for reasonable travel time to and from such meetings. Association representation may include the President or other Employee designated by the Association to handle grievances.
- 20.6 Written Notice of Proposed Disciplinary Action shall be provided to the employee. Such notices shall state the nature of the charges, the alleged acts upon which the charges are based and the nature of the discipline to be imposed. Copies of disciplinary notices shall be provided to the Association as soon as possible but not more than 24 hours after being given to the employee. The Prosecutor will provide discovery to, or allow inspection of evidence by, the Employee and the Association representative within five (5) days following the receipt of the written notice of proposed disciplinary action, upon written request of the Employee or the Association. "Inspection of evidence" within the meaning of this section refers to the right of the parties to inspect and make copies of all documents or other evidence in

A Final Notice of Disciplinary Action shall be issued and discipline shall be imposed.

20.7.3 The Employee may be represented at the hearing by an Association representative or representatives. The Employer shall issue a decision and furnish the Employee and the Association with a Final Notice of Disciplinary Action within ten business days after the hearing, or such additional time as may be agreed to by the parties.

If the hearing officer's decision is rejected or modified, the Prosecutor, or his/her designee, shall give reasons for such rejection or modification in the final, written determination.

20.7.6.4 The Association shall have the right to respond to the hearing officer's recommendation stating its objections or areas of disagreement. The Association shall have five working days of receipt of the hearing officer's report to respond.

20.8 Miscellaneous Provisions

20.8.1 Hearings conducted pursuant to this Article shall be fair and impartial and shall provide, at a minimum, for examination and cross-examination of witnesses and procedures for the authentication of evidence to be introduced. Either the Employer or the Association may make a verbatim record of the hearing through a certified court reporter or tape recording, but no recording of such proceedings shall be made without notification to the other party. The party making the verbatim record shall provide the other party with a copy of the record without charge.

20.8.2 No Employee shall be coerced, intimidated or suffer any reprisal as a result of participation in disciplinary hearings. Any employee who is involved in a hearing as a witness, representative, or resource person will be allowed to attend such proceedings without loss of pay or benefit time.

GRIEVANCE PROCEDURE

21.1 Grievance Defined

21.1.1 A grievance is a claimed breach, misinterpretation or improper application of the terms of this contract; or a claimed violation, misinterpretation or misapplication of rules or regulations, existing policies or practices, orders, agreements, administrative decisions, or laws applicable to the Employer and policies applicable to the Employee which establishes terms and conditions of employment.

21.1.2 Disciplinary matters as set forth in Article XX are not subject to the pre-arbitration provisions of the grievance procedure set forth in this article. Rather, they will be conducted pursuant to the procedures set forth in Article XX. However, appeals of the final determination of the Prosecutor with respect to discipline shall be subject to the binding arbitration provisions of this Article.

21.2 The purpose of the Grievance Procedure is to secure prompt and equitable resolutions to problems regarding the administration of this Agreement or other terms and conditions of employment. To this end, relevant and necessary information, materials and documents concerning any grievance shall be provided by the Employer upon written request. The procedure set forth in this Article shall be the sole and exclusive means of seeking adjustments and settling grievances.

21.3 General Rules

21.3.1 Grievances may be filed by the Union, and shall be governed by the procedures set forth herein. The Association may submit a grievance either within the time limits referred to herein or, with the consent of the Prosecutor, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld, within thirty business days of the occurrence giving rise to the grievance. An employee or group of employees involved shall be entitled to be present and to use the grievance procedure with the consent of the Association and to be represented by the Association in accordance with the provisions herein.

21.3.2 Employees using this grievance procedure shall not be coerced, intimidated or suffer any reprisal as a direct or indirect result of such use or representation by the Association during the grievance procedure, or for being a witness or other participant in the grievance procedure.

21.3.3 The Association may undertake to amend the grievance during any step of the procedure. It is understood that such amendment is only for the purpose of clarification and shall not be utilized to change the nature of the grievance or to include additional issues.

Agreed to by: Employer: _____ Association: _____ Date: _____

- 21.3.4 Meetings and/or hearings shall be scheduled by the Employer after consultation with the Association as to availability of mutually convenient dates and times within the time limits set forth herein.
- 21.3.5 The number of days indicated at each step of the grievance procedure shall be considered the maximum and every effort shall be made to expedite the process. The time limits specified may be extended by mutual, written consent.
- 21.3.6 The lack of response by the Employer within the prescribed time periods, unless time limits have been extended by mutual, written agreement, should be construed as a negative response.
- 21.3.7 The Association representative shall have the right directly to examine or cross-examine witnesses who appear at a hearing at any step of this procedure. The Association shall have the right to be present and to state its views at all steps of the grievance procedure.
- 21.3.8 At each step of the procedure, all grievance decisions shall include a written explanation of the reason for the decision.
- 21.3.9 The Employer shall provide both the grievant and the Association with a copy of the grievance decision at each step of this procedure.
- 21.3.10 An Association Representative or steward shall be permitted reasonable time to investigate grievances and reasonable time to present and process grievances during working hours without loss of pay or time.
- 21.3.11 Any Employee scheduled by the parties during his/her working hours to participate in grievance procedures shall suffer no loss in pay or benefits for appearances in grievance hearings. There shall be no claim for compensatory time in the event the grievance hearing extends beyond the employee's normal work day.
- 21.3.12 Where the employee or the Association requests employee witnesses, permission for a reasonable number of witnesses required during the grievance proceedings will be granted. A witness of such proceedings will be permitted to appear without loss of pay for the time of appearance and travel time as required if during his/her normal scheduled working hours. There shall be no claim of compensatory time in the event the grievance hearing extends beyond the witness' normal work day.
- 21.3.13 The burden of proof shall be on the grievant.
- 21.3.14 The Employer, at any step of the grievance process, may consolidate two or more grievances on the same issue and process them as a group grievance.

Agreed to by: Employer: _____ Association: _____ Date: _____

21.3.15 The parties shall submit a list of witnesses, grievants and Association representatives attending the hearing to the hearing officer at least three business days in advance.

21.4 A Preliminary Informal Procedure shall be recognized. An Employee may orally present and discuss a grievance with his/her immediate supervisor on an informal basis. A verbal disposition of the grievance shall be given to the grievant within five business days. The Employee has the option of having an Association Representative present for the discussion. However, the Association shall not be bound by any informal settlement between the Employee and his/her supervisor. This informal step does not preclude or mitigate the employee or Association from utilizing the full formal grievance procedure described in this article.

21.5 Formal Grievance Procedure

21.5.1 The grievant, through the Union, may present the grievance in writing to the Prosecutor within twenty (20) business days of the date the grievant knew or should have known of its occurrence.

A written disposition of the grievance shall be given to the grievant and the Association within five business days of the meeting. The 10-day deadline may be extended only by mutual agreement.

21.6 Arbitration

21.6.1 A grievance which is not satisfactorily resolved may be appealed to arbitration only by the Association through its designee within thirty calendar days from the date the Association received the Prosecutor's written disposition of the grievance. If no written decision is received, then a grievance may be appealed within forty-five calendar days from the conclusion of the procedure outlined in Section 21.5 et. seq. If mutually agreed, a pre-arbitration conference may be scheduled for the purpose of attempting to settle the matter and to frame the issues or issues absent a settlement.

21.6.2 A final written determination of the Prosecutor imposing discipline, as set forth in Article 20 of this Agreement, may be appealed to arbitration by either the Association or the employee who has been disciplined within thirty calendar days from the date that the Association and the employee received the formal, written determination of the Prosecutor, or if no formal, written decision is issued, within forty-five calendar days of the imposition of the disciplinary penalty. If mutually

Agreed to by: Employer: _____ Association: _____ Date: _____

- 21.6.3 The parties herewith agree to utilize the panel of arbitrators maintained by the New Jersey Public Employment Relations Commission ("PERC"), and shall follow the procedures set forth by PERC for grievance arbitration matters.
- 21.6.4 The arbitrator shall not have the power to add to, subtract from, or modify the provisions of this Agreement or laws of the State of New Jersey, or any written policy of the Prosecutor not inconsistent with this Agreement, or to determine any dispute involving the exercise of management functions which are within the authority of the Prosecutor, and shall confine his/her decision solely to the interpretation and application of this Agreement. The arbitrator shall be confined to the precise issues submitted, and the arbitrator shall not submit observations or opinions which are not essential in reaching the determination of the issues presented. The decision of the arbitrator shall be final and binding consistent with applicable law and this Agreement.
